Press Release

NEW STAMP ISSUE COMMEMORATES THE RIO GAMES, HONOURS BOLT AND FRASER PRYCE

Jamaica Post has unveiled and released a new stamp issue commemorating the Rio Olympic Games.

The stamps were unveiled by Minister of Sports, Olivia Grange and the Minister with responsibility the Postal Services, Dr. Andrew Wheatley at the National Senior Championships on Sunday.

Representatives for the two sprint sensations and multiple Olympic gold medallists were presented with commemorative First Day Covers from the new issue of Rio Olympic Stamps which bear the athletes' images. Shelly-Ann Fraser Pryce shared her appreciation on social media, "Thank you Jamaica Post for this wonderful gesture of a commemorative stamp in honor of the Summer Olympics."

Deputy Postmaster General, Sophia Hamilton-Brown, says "both athletes have represented Jamaica well over the years and today stand on the brink of major accomplishments in the third consecutive defence of their Olympic titles." Mrs. Hamilton Brown says "it is for these reasons Jamaica Post saw it fitting to issue these Rio Olympic stamps to recognize Usain and Shelly-Ann".

The new issue of stamps is available in three (3) denominations - $60, $120, $300 – and can be had as collector and gift items in the form of souvenir sheets, stamp sets and framed and unframed first day covers at select Post Offices islandwide and from Jamaica Post's recently launched Online Store. The release will also be sold as postage stamps throughout the postal network.

Jamaica Post partnered with the Jamaica Athletics Administrative Association (JAAA) and the Jamaica Olympic Association, (JOA), to launch the commemorative stamps and formally present Fraser Pryce and Bolt with their own Rio Olympic First Day Covers.
