Temporary Early Closure of Some Post Offices Due to National Water Crisis - NWC Strike

The Post and Telecommunications Department advises that effective Wednesday, May 11, 2022, some postal locations will be closed at 3:30 pm.

The temporary disruption in operations at some postal locations is a consequence of the all-island water crisis, which took effect on Tuesday, May 10, 2022, when more than 2000 employees from the National Water Commission (NWC) took industrial action.

The Department is monitoring the situation closely and will keep the public apprised regarding any new developments relating to postal operations.
