PRESS RELEASE

Suspension of Parcels and Packets to USA

Kingston, Jamaica - August 26, 2025 - Jamaica Post wishes to advise that the last outbound flight to the United States of America (USA) for the dispatch of Parcels and Packets (letters containing merchandise) will depart on Thursday, August 28, 2025.

As a result, Tuesday, August 26, 2025, will be the final day to post Parcels and Packets to the USA at all Jamaica Post locations until further notice.

This measure has become necessary following the issuance of Executive Order (EO) 14324 by the United States, which suspends duty-free de minimis treatment for all countries, effective August 29, 2025. Jamaica Post received official notification of this change today, August 26, 2025. This EO affects the processing of Parcels and Packets from all countries, not just Jamaica.

Jamaica Post is actively engaging its partners to address this matter and will provide updates as soon as additional information becomes available. All other postal services remain unaffected and continue as normal.

We thank our valued customers for their understanding and continued support.
